is said to be a loan raised by Sri J. D. Ramrani for being sent to Ceylon.

No document is produced to show that the loan was actually arranged by the petitioner. The G. of I. would like to assure themselves about (1) the sum of 20,000 gold dollars actually available and (2) the bonafides of the remitter and payee before they instruct the Reserve Bank of India in the matter.

(4) The Refugee Commissioner's Office ~~Staff~~ has an executive officer, who could make enquiries and send a detailed report.

(5) Moreover, this seems to be beyond the functions of the ~~Refugee~~ Committee as laid down in G. O.* 10/15.12.47.

(6) It is certainly the earnest desire of Govt. to rehabilitate refugees, but not their concern to promote established business, and make the opulent refugees grow richer.

(7) Submitted for orders whether more particulars may be called for from the Committee

10/12/48

(8) The application is addressed to the Govt. of India through the Secy, M. S. R. R. C. and, if approved, may be sent forwarded after getting the Jt. Secy. to note on the appn. the register no. of the refugee.

(9) The Suggestion about Countersignature is made by the Jt. Secy. She may be asked to state whether this procedure is prescribed anywhere, and if not, what is the reason for suggesting it.
